1. How do I schedule an appointment with your clinic?

- Answer: You can easily schedule an appointment by using our online appointment booking system. Select your preferred date and time, provide your contact information, and you're all set. If you have any issues, feel free to contact our reception.

2. What should I bring to my appointment?

- Answer: When visiting our clinic, please bring your photo ID, insurance card (if applicable), a list of current medications, and any relevant medical records or test results. This helps us provide the best care.

3. What is your cancellation policy?

- Answer: We understand that unexpected situations can arise. If you need to cancel or reschedule your appointment, please notify us at least 24 hours in advance. This allows us to accommodate other patients. Late cancellations or no-shows may be subject to a fee.

4. Do you accept insurance, and which providers are in-network?

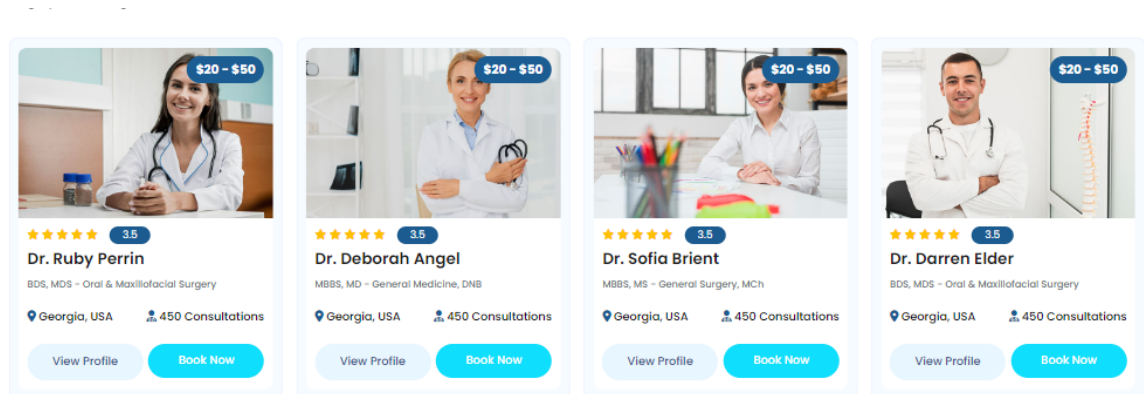

- Answer: Yes, we do accept insurance. We work with various insurance providers. To confirm if we are in-network with your insurance plan, please contact our billing department. Be sure to bring your insurance card to your appointment, and we will assist you in the billing process.
